RELIEF REQUESTED AND BASIS THEREFOR

16. The professional services performed by Cole Schotz on the Debtors' behalf during the Compensation Period required an aggregate expenditure of 473.30 recorded hours by Cole Schotz's partners, associates and paraprofessionals. Of the aggregate time expended, 288.70 recorded hours were expended by members of Cole Schotz, 84.10 recorded hours were expended by associates, and 92.20 recorded hours were expended by paraprofessionals.

17. During the Compensation Period, Cole Schotz's hourly billing rates for attorneys and paraprofessionals ranged from $355.00 to $1,200.00 per hour. Allowance of compensation in the amount requested would result in a blended hourly billing rate of $736.19, which represents a blended rate of $355.00 and $828.41 for paraprofessionals and attorneys, respectively, at Cole Schotz's regular billing rates in effect at the time of the performance of services.

18. Cole Schotz has incurred $4,960.63 in direct out-of-pocket expenses in providing professional services during the Compensation Period. These charges are intended to cover Cole Schotz's direct operating costs, which costs are not incorporated into Cole Schotz's billing rates.

19. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may award a professional employed under Section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual necessary services rendered . . . and reimbursement for actual necessary expenses.”

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1).

20. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code contains two separate criteria, and before determining the reasonableness of the service, the Court must make a threshold inquiry into its necessity. In re Engel, 190 B.R. 206, 209 (Bankr. D.N.J. 1995); see also In re Fleming Cos., 304 B.R. 85, 89 (D. Del. 2003) (discussing a two-tiered approach to determining whether compensation should be allowed—first “the court must be satisfied that the attorney performed actual and necessary services” and second “the court must assess a reasonable value for those services”). The majority of courts which have interpreted Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code have held that an element of whether such services are “necessary” is whether they benefitted the bankruptcy estate. Engel, 190 B.R. at 209. Further, the test for determining necessity is objective, focusing on what services a reasonable lawyer would have performed under the same circumstances. In re APW Enclosure Sys., Inc., No. 06-11378 (MFW), 2007 WL 3112414, at *3 (Bankr. D. Del. 2007) (citing Fleming, 304 B.R. at 89). This test does not rely on hindsight to determine the ultimate success or failure of the attorney’s actions. See id. (citing, inter alia, Keate v. Miller (In re Kohl), 95 F.3d 713, 714 (8th Cir. 1996)).

21. Once the court determines that a service was necessary, it also assesses the reasonable value of the service. 11 U.S.C. § 303(a)(3). Section 330(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement, stating:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded . . . the court shall consider the nature, extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including—

- (A) the time spent on such services;
- (B) the rates charged for such services;

(C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;

(D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;

(E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and

(F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

22. In determining the reasonableness of fees, courts routinely “employ the twelve factors set forth in Johnson v. Ga. Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714, 717-19 (5th Cir. 1974).” Staiano v. Cain (In re Lan Assocs. XI, L.P.), 192 F.3d 109, 123 (3d Cir. 1999). These factors include: (1) the time and labor required; (2) the novelty and difficulty of the questions; (3) the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly; (4) the preclusion of employment by the attorney due to acceptance of the case; (5) the customary fee; (6) whether the fee is fixed or contingent; (7) time limitations imposed by client or the circumstances; (8) the amount involved and the results obtained; (9) the experience, reputation and ability of the attorneys; (10) the undesirability of the case; (11) the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and (12) awards in similar cases. Id. at 123 n.8.

23. In addition, Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a debtor’s attorney employed under Section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code may apply to the Court for interim compensation not more than once every 120 days after an order for relief in a case under chapter 11. See 11 U.S.C. § 331.

24. In the instant case, Cole Schotz devoted a substantial amount of time and effort to addressing the numerous issues involved in these Chapter 11 Cases. Cole Schotz respectfully submits that the services for which it seeks compensation in this Application were, at the time rendered, believed to be necessary to effectively represent the Debtors, were performed economically, effectively, and efficiently. Because Cole Schotz's services benefitted the bankruptcy estates, Cole Schotz respectfully submits that it performed "actual and necessary" services compensable under Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code.

25. Further, Cole Schotz submits that consideration of the relevant factors enumerated in Lan Assocs., 192 F.3d at 123 n.8, establishes that the compensation requested is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services to the Debtors:

- (a) The Time and Labor Required. The professional services rendered by Cole Schotz on behalf of the Debtors have required the expenditure of substantial time and effort, as well as a high degree of professional competence and expertise, in order to deal with the many issues encountered by the Debtors in these cases with skill and dispatch. Cole Schotz respectfully represents that the services rendered by it were performed efficiently, effectively, and economically.
- (b) The Novelty and Difficulty of Questions. Many legal challenges have arisen in the course of this case given the unique and novel issues involved in a cryptocurrency Chapter 11. Cole Schotz's effective assistance has facilitated and will continue to facilitate the resolution of such issues.
- (c) The Skill Required to Perform the Legal Services Properly. Cole Schotz believes that its recognized expertise in the area of insolvency proceedings and reorganization and its knowledge of New Jersey practice and procedure contributed to the efficient and effective representation of the Debtors in these Chapter 11 Cases.
- (d) The Preclusion of Other Employment by Applicant Due to Acceptance of the Case. Cole Schotz's representation of the Debtors did not preclude its acceptance of new clients. However, the issues that arose in these cases required attention on a continuing, and oftentimes emergent, basis, requiring Cole Schotz's professionals to commit significant portions of their time to these Chapter 11 Cases.
- (e) The Customary Fee. The fee sought herein is based on Cole Schotz's normal hourly rates for services of this kind. Cole Schotz respectfully submits that the hourly rates of its professionals are not unusual given the time expended in attending to the representation of the Debtors. Cole Schotz's hourly rates and the fees requested herein are commensurate with fees Cole Schotz has been awarded in other Chapter 11 Cases, as well as with fees charged by other attorneys of comparable experience.

- (f) Whether the Fee is Fixed or Contingent. Not applicable.
- (g) Time Limitations Imposed by Client or other Circumstances. Not applicable.
- (h) The Amount Involved and Results Obtained. Cole Schotz respectfully submits that the amount of fees for which compensation is sought is reasonable under the circumstances given the numerous issues that had to be addressed.
- (i) The Experience, Reputation and Ability of the Attorneys. Cole Schotz is a professional association with approximately 170 attorneys that practice extensively in the fields of bankruptcy and corporate restructuring; litigation; real estate; tax, trusts and estates; corporate, finance and business transactions; employment; environmental; construction services and other phases of the law. Cole Schotz has represented debtors, creditors, creditors' committees, fiduciaries and numerous other parties in hundreds of cases before the Bankruptcy Courts for the District of New Jersey as well as in various other Bankruptcy Courts throughout the country.
- (j) The Undesirability of the Case. Not applicable.
- (k) Nature and Length of Professional Relationship. Not applicable.
- (l) Awards In Similar Cases. As previously indicated, the fees sought herein are commensurate with fees Cole Schotz has been awarded in other Chapter 11 Cases.

In addition, consistent with Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, this is Cole Schotz's second interim fee application. This application is made more than 120 days from the Petition Date.

See 11 U.S.C. § 331.
